

Military Services

Bryan University has dedicated Military Benefit Liaisons in the Financial Aid Office to assist service members with identifying and applying for their benefits. For assistance, service members are encouraged to contact Financial Aid directly or speak to an admissions representative.