

Class Sizes

Bryan University believes students should engage in highly interactive class environments in which they connect in meaningful ways with their instructors and peers. Class sizes are carefully considered to optimize the level of engagement and interaction across all courses. Classes will not exceed the following limits and often average much fewer students:

- Residential Classrooms and Labs: Maximum of 25 Students
- Online Classrooms and Labs: Maximum of 65 students