Registering Attendance

Students register course attendance by participating in, or completing, the following educational activities:

- Submitting an academic assignment
- Engaging in a drill, quiz, or exam
- Participating in a discussion about course-related academic content